Letter from the Headteacher

Dear Applicant

As Headteacher of Gunnersbury Catholic School I would like to extend a very warm welcome to you.

This is a fantastic time to join Gunnersbury Catholic School. The talents of our leadership, teachers and the superb student body has culminated in our school being ranked as the leading Boys' Comprehensive School in the country for GCSE achievement (DfE Performance Tables 2025). Our 2025 cohort achieved 93% 5 GCSEs at 9-4 including English and Mathematics and a 'Progress 8' score of +1.0. Similarly at A-level we enable outstanding outcomes for our students. The appetite for success that our pupils possess, their Catholic values and superb behaviour allied to the supportive colleagues and leaders at Gunnersbury make this a great place to work and take your career on to the next level.

We seek a ambitious, talented and successful Head of Design and Technology to be a key leader within our School. If you have a passion for the subject and a desire to enable students to receive the very best design and technology teaching then we would like to hear from you.

Our new Head of Design and Technology will receive training, coaching and development of the highest quality, enabling them to become the very best leader that they can be. Developing our staff is key to what we do at Gunnersbury Catholic School as we understand that progressing staff ensures learning of the highest quality for our pupils.

Within our school we have been able to create a unique setting. Ours is a school within which students take pride in succeeding, where the pupils strive to achieve the very highest and where there is an unrelenting desire to do even better. At Gunnersbury Catholic School successes and achievements in all spheres are proudly celebrated by our students. We are a busy, thriving and ambitious school. Gunnersbury's academic achievement has been acknowledged by Fischer Family Trust as being amongst the top 3% of schools in the country. Year after year government schools' ministers have acknowledged our GCSE success as being amongst the top 100 schools nationally. Ofsted and the Diocese of Westminster have both determined that we are an outstanding school. We pride ourselves on our academic success, achievements that provide entry for our students to world leading universities and high quality careers.

There is however even more to a Gunnersbury education. We enable our students to develop in all aspects of their person: spiritual, moral, sporting, artistic and social. Gunnersbury moulds fully rounded individuals ready to take their place in and make a difference to society. More so, Gunnersbury strives to and succeeds in developing young adults equipped to take their place as leaders in an ever-changing world.

If you are someone who seeks to reach for the highest in all that you do, Ad Altiora, then we would like to hear from you.

I look forward to receiving your application.

With kind regards.

Kevin S Burke
Headteacher

The Role

The Head of Design and Technology is integral to Gunnersbury's provision of superb teaching and achievement within the subject. The new postholder shall seek to further the learning experience and outcomes of our students and they shall seek to encourage the creative expression of our students. Further to examination success, the department keenly seeks to establish a love of Design and Technology. Requirements of the position include:

Leadership

- Securing and sustaining effective teaching of design and technology
- Evaluation of the quality of teaching and achievement of design and technology in the department
- Have responsibility for the attainment of individual targets by each student studying design and technology
- Lead staff, through the provision of appropriate support, challenge and motivation, to excellence in their teaching
- Develop and implement schemes of work and policies such as will deliver excellence in Teaching & Learning and high pupil achievement
- Work with the departmental team of teachers and with Heads of Year and tutors to make sure that the work and progress of pupils of your key stage is monitored and recorded in order to secure fulfilment of their personal and academic potential in History
- Ensure that assessment systems effectively monitor pupil progress and reliably inform reports and curriculum planning.
- Plan, develop and introduce curriculum changes when required

Teaching

- Ensure that individual lessons are planned, well prepared and take account of the ability of individual groups. Teachers must demand the highest standards from pupils in all areas, including classwork, homework, behaviour, attitude, organisation and presentation.
- Create an effective learning environment for all pupils, maintaining high standards of behaviour and ensuring that rooms are a pleasant place to study.
- Regularly set and mark appropriate work for pupils in order to assess progress and understanding. When marking and assessing, teachers should follow the agreed departmental policies.
- Keep a record of work and records of assessment as outlined in the school and departmental handbooks. They must be prepared to provide information on individual pupil progress based on school target data as required by the Leadership team other teaching staff and parents.
- Lead in departmental meetings and in the development of departmental policies, schemes of work, assessment programmes and examinations.
- Attend appropriate parents' consultation evenings, well-prepared to discuss pupils' work and to provide assessment of individual pupils as and when required.
- Participate in regular self review and evaluation, attending appropriate training days as part of your ongoing professional development.
- In planning units of work and individual lessons, teachers should keep in mind the requirements of the Exam Boards and department Schemes of work and ensure that the curriculum is accessible to all students.
- Contribute towards extra-curricular activities.
- Attend to all duties as directed by the headteacher.

The above characteristics and details of the role are not exhaustive. Rather they represent a guide to the requirements of the job. Furthermore the job description/requirements are subject to regular review and may change over time.

Above all else we seek to appoint a superb teacher with a real passion for Design and Technology, who is committed to the success of their students and the talent to be an exceptional leader within the school. Potential, dynamism, determination and resolve are key attributes for this role.

Our excellent school and design and technology department will provide the experience, training and guidance to enable this ambition to be fulfilled.

The Department

Design & Technology is an important subject in a fast-changing technical world; one that makes a valuable contribution to the curriculum. It gives pupils an appreciation and understanding of the designed and built world around them and teaches important transferable employment skills not covered in other subject areas.

Our schemes of work focus on developing intellectual curiosity inside and outside the classroom, and teachers are encouraged to share opportunities and resources that promote independent thought in our students. Our curriculum is about empowering students to be creative, considerate of wider issues and capable of realising their own designs. They use this to create products, using a wide range of materials and processes. Students focus on the areas of Product Design, Resistant Materials and Food Technology. The creative process in which pupils are engaged is interactive and is centred around the design process.

In years 7, 8 and 9 students receive lessons every other week as part of our 2 week timetable. We cover all material areas and core technical knowledge across projects in the workshops and food technology. At key stage 4 and 5 we follow the AQA Design and Technology specification.

We work closely with our Art Department and subject areas across the school to make cross-curricular links as well as streamline the delivery of applied Maths and Science with the subject.

Students participate in enrichment activities such as helping design and create the set for school productions. We are proud to work closely with Imperial College London and students enjoy the use of their facilities on projects in the summer term.

The School

Gunnersbury is a Voluntary Aided School for Catholic boys. Administered by a Board of Governors acting under the trusteeship of the Archdiocese of Westminster. The annual intake is 184 pupils and the total number of pupils on roll is 1257, including a mixed Sixth Form of boys and girls. We achieved 'Outstanding' in all categories of our recent Ofsted Inspection in January 2023. Year on year our school regularly achieves excellent examination results. In 2025 93% of year 11 pupils gained at least five GCSEs at 9-4, including English and Maths. Our 'Progress 8' score for this cohort was +1.0. As such we are ranked as the leading Boys' Comprehensive School for GCSE in the country. Similarly we achieve excellent results at A- level.

The school was founded in 1919 by Fr William Roche, became a Voluntary Aided Grammar School in 1932, took its first comprehensive intake in 1972, became Grant Maintained in April 1993 and returned to Voluntary Aided in September 1999. It has been designated a Specialist School in September 2003. Since then we have been awarded a further specialism, Leading Edge, whilst also achieving High Performance Specialist Status.

Although located in the London Borough of Hounslow, Gunnersbury considers itself a Diocesan School and draws from a wide catchment area consisting mainly of the London Boroughs of Hounslow, Ealing and Richmond, but some pupils attend from even further afield coming from Central London, Brent, Hillingdon, Spelthorne and Harrow.

The Catholic character of the school is an essential and important part of school life. It is made explicit not just in the religious education programme and shared values but in the liturgical life of the school. There is a voluntary mass on Fridays and important feast days together with family liturgies, a retreat programme and Morning Prayer in Advent and Lent. The School Chapel is set-aside as a quiet area for prayer and liturgy.

The school is led by a Headteacher supported by three Deputy Heads within a senior staff of 8. Each member of the Senior Leadership Team is responsible for a distinct pastoral, academic, administrative and policy area of the school. Departments are subject based. The school has a well-developed system of pastoral care, overseen by a Year Head and Form Tutor. High standards of behaviour and dress are expected and the pastoral system aims to promote the development of self-discipline and consideration for others. The School Council meets regularly, chaired by a member of the Sixth Form.

Gunnersbury is always over-subscribed with first choice applications from Catholic pupils. Our mission is to continue to provide these pupils with the very best Catholic education for their lives ahead.
