

Drawing and Painting

You will learn skills in the formal elements; composition, line, tone and shape

Practical Tasks

You will explore skills in using media: acrylic paint, mixed media, clay sculpting, a variety of mark making styles and several forms of printmaking.

Contextual Studies

You will explore East Asian art and culture focusing on Japanese and Korean artists

Figure Drawing

You will learn how to accurately measure proportion in figure drawing

Assessment

Through use of portfolio sheets. A mark is given based on evidence seen within the.

Contextual studies

You will gain an understanding of contextual studies, researching into the ideas and practises of artists both traditional and contemporary and how this is used as a springboard for developing your own creative ideas

Presentation skills

You will learn how to present images in a sketchbook and on portfolio sheets in preparation for unit 1 and for interview

Final Piece

You will create final outcomes using Sumi-e techniques lino printing and 3-D structures

Mini Investigation

You will learn how to create an independent exploration into an aspect of art, craft and design through a mini personal investigation in preparation for unit 1

Assessment

You will be assessed through use of a sketchbook. An overall grade is given based on evidence seen within the work

