- To begin, please click on the Google Meet link posted on the classroom stream
- Your lesson will include teacher led input and independent tasks. You must ensure your camera and microphone are enabled at all times to allow you to engage fully with your teacher. The lesson will be recorded
- You must be dressed in full school uniform as each day will be a “normal school day”
- You must arrive to all lessons on time and have the equipment needed to fully participate in the class. (e.g. text book, exercise book, stationary etc.)
- Your attendance will be registered by your teacher. If you do not attend a lesson, this will be treated as an absence from education and your parents will be contacted
- If you have a question during the live lesson, type it into the Google Meet Chat and your teacher will answer you
- If you wish to contact your teacher following your lesson, please do so via Gmail
- It is of the utmost importance that we work together to ensure you continue to benefit from a high quality education. By working together we can help you continue to make progress and reach your potential
